

THE DAYS AND WAYS OF NOAH

Text Genesis 6:1 - 8:22

We can speculate about who were the Nephilim and how were people able to live almost a thousand years ... but it's only speculation.

The world had become a violent and wicked place, and Noah stood alone as one who was “b_____ among the people of his time.”

Everything and everyone on planet Earth died. Only Noah and his family remained.

? Does it sound like Paul is describing our current times? Ref: 2nd Timothy 3:1-5

I don't know if we're actually living in the last days — because Jesus made it pretty clear that no one would know the hour of his coming — but I do know that the culture in which we live is demonstrably d_____ than it has ever been

God is not going to call you to build a boat in the middle of the desert, but he does call you to a life of c_____ and faith — a life that goes against the grain of cultural fashion.

Noah, living a godly life was an everyday pursuit. More specifically, it was a t_____pursuit. Ref: Gen.6:8

Noah attitude was, “I want God to be present in my life every day, everywhere I go.” Ref: Micah 6:8

2. Commit yourself to life-long o_____.

Noah’s ark project wasn’t begun on a whim or completed in a whirlwind of emotion. It took day-in and day-out consistency:

Twice the Bible says that Noah did everything God commanded him to do. [Genesis 6:22, 7:5]

Sometimes o_____is a long and extended walk of faith. Ref: Galatians 6:9

Noah’s first thought, upon leaving the boat, was to say 'thank you' to God. His first thought was to give God his due. Ref: Genesis 8:20

God first. God now. God always.
