Text Matthew 6:22-23

Vision begins with the ability to see accurately what is happening in the p_____ m_____.

Living with 2020 Vision means that we can see, with precision and accuracy, who we are and where we are.

1. Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you through this p_____.

Ref: Jeremiah 17:9; John 14:26; John 16:13; Psalm 139:23-24

What does truth have the power to do? It has the power to set you f_____. And so, we need to ask the Holy Spirit to enlighten us, and to guide us through this process.

One aspect of the Holy Spirit's work is that he c_____ us and c_____ us. He shows us where we miss the mark, and how to make it right.

The world's approach is slightly different. The world's approach is to criticize and condemn.

2. With the Holy Spirit's help, evaluate your s_____ and w_____.

Ref: Lamentations 3:40; Psalm 4:4; Galatians 6:4

My challenge to you is that you find a few quiet moments this week, with pen and paper, and ask the Holy Spirit to guide you as you list your strengths and weaknesses, because this list will help you define your vision for the future.

3. Consider where this list is calling you to serve.

Ref: Matthew 23:11; 1 Peter 4:10; 2 Corinthians 12:9

Whatever God has in store for you, it involves serving others. God can take the worst things that happen in our lives — even our greatest failures — and use them to minister his g_____ to others. Your vision will become clear only when you can look into your own heart. Who looks outside, dreams; who looks inside, awakes.” Carl Jung
